

The John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts Lapse Plan

Lapse Plan Summary Overview

Estimated time (to nearest

The Center is explicitly prohibited from using appropriated funds " for any direct expense incurred in the production of a performing arts attraction, for personnel who are involved in performing arts administration (including any supply or equipment used by the personnel), or for production, staging, public relations, marketing, fundraising, ticket sales, or education" (20 U.S.C. 76r(e)). The Center's charitable trust uses a combination of earned income, contributions, excepted appropriated employee. Contracting staff needed to ensure continued progress for ongoing projects will be maintained.

The Kennedy Center is prohibited from accepting voluntary services from federal employees to

